A NEW BLOG!

I receive lots of info about news in the Church, and I know some of it would be interesting to you all as young adults. So, I've launched a new blog for Dallas young adults. I'll be updating it with stories at least once a week, so check back often to see what is new:

Julie's Corner

As Baptized Catholics we are called to continually learn more about our faith and grow closer to God! Theology on Tap is one way we do that as young adults. As adult Catholics we have so many other opportunities as well. This issue is filled with education opportunities—take advantage of one before the busy holiday season begins!

"The Church needs a well-educated, inquiring, and vocal laity if the new evangelization is to achieve its full potential."
