WORLD YOUTH DAY MADRID—AUGUST 2011

I know it is over a year and a half away, but it is already time to start planning for World Youth Day Madrid.

Bishop Farrell has decided that no one younger than 18 may participate in World Youth Day 2011 in Madrid as a pilgrim from our diocesan parishes or schools. (So....this is for young adults!) See our homepage for more details.

Stay tuned for more details about our plans for a pilgrimage to World Youth Day Madrid!

Coffeehaus

Leisure...in an "artful" setting.

Beginning Thursday, Feb. 25 (and the last Thursday of every month) St. Elizabeth Ann Seton will host a Coffeehaus, an opportunity for us to come together as a community in a leisurely "artful" setting. We will gather in the courtyard at the Faith Formation Center (weather permitting) or in the Youth Room and enjoy an evening of the visual and performing arts, coffee and conversation. Check out more details here.

Holy Relics of Christendom Exhibit

Pieces of the cross, the crown of thorns, and relics of clothing long believed to have been used by Christ and his Mother will be on rare public display with a large collection of Saint relics in the Community Life Center of Holy Trinity Catholic Church in Dallas, Texas Saturday, February 27th and Sunday, February 28th from 10am until 7pm. Click here for full details.
