

Hello Young Adults!

Just a quick note with some updates about Theology on Tap. By now, you all should have received an Anyvite and/or Facebook invitation for the first week. If not, send me your email address and let me know which one you would like to receive.

Some of you noticed that we have changed the location of this series from the original plan of BJs. Long story short, I had some miscommunication issues with BJs in Addison. After spending the better part of this week calling all possible locations in Addison, I've settled on a different location in Dallas. We are moving this series to Sherlock's Pub on Park Lane & 75 in Dallas. I know this may add 10 minutes or so to the commute for some of you, but I think the space, the food, and the drink specials will all more than make up for the extra drive! Anne and I went by yesterday and it really "feels" like Theology on Tap in there. One other new requirement is that you must be 21+ to attend, due to the requirements of Sherlock's.

On a publicity note, I've update the website with details about Theology on Tap, including a nifty flyer and a bulletin announcement (yes, I said nifty!). There's also some info on the homepage, including links to the current Anyvite and Facebook invitations. Please spread the word with your young adult ministries and your friends!

Finally, if any of you are interested in serving on the hospitality or clean-up teams, please send me a note. I can give you the scoop.

I'm really looking forward this next series. I think we have some fantastic speakers lined up (the Bishop for week 2!!) and will be at a great location. See you on April 8th!

Blessings,
